

Falteisek to Perform Concert on June 6 sponsored by Wergeland Lodge Sons of Norway of La Crosse, WI.

Chris Falteisek, musician, composer and recording artist will perform in concert at 7:00 p.m., Thursday, June 6, 2013 at North Presbyterian Church, 1327 North Salem Road in La Crosse, WI.

Falteisek will pay tribute to his Norwegian heritage in this special concert. The concert will include some of Chris' personal compositions, as well as familiar Norwegian songs.

The concert will also include a multi-media show of pictures from Falteisek's trip to Norway, as well as a music video celebrating the life of Chris' Norwegian Swedish grandmother.

Falteisek, a native of Prescott, WI, started playing organ and piano for church while in the 6th grade. In addition to currently working in several churches as an accompanist and choir director, Chris has also composed and recorded 14 albums. His musical performances have brought him to Sweden, Norway and around the United States. Chris' musical style is eclectic and mirrors his love of various historical periods. In his spare time, Chris enjoys genealogy and researching his Czech, Polish, Norwegian and Swedish family history.

The concert sponsored by the Wergeland Lodge Sons of Norway from La Crosse, is free and open to the public and will be approximately 60 minutes in length.

Following the concert, Wergeland Lodge will have a Pie and Ice Cream Social.
